The Grant

The grant currently amounts to £512.00 (Five Hundred and Twelve pounds) per annum and is usually paid half yearly at the end of June and early in December (£256 per half year).

The grant is paid by cheque at the end of June and the beginning of December and will amount to £256.00 each time, whilst the grant is in effect.

This is a discretionary grant, and can be removed at any time.

Qualifications

The object of the charity is the relief or prevention of poverty for the public benefit among women who are resident in Northampton from time to time, with preference to those have lived in the area the longest, by making grants of money.
